WRIT PETITION NO.11252 OF 2007

ORDER:

 This writ petition is filed seeking a mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in issuing revised notification modifying the selection procedure, by giving preference to the contract labour than the fresh candidates, as arbitrary and illegal.

 There is no necessity of going into all the details.

 While admitting the writ petition on 30.05.2007, this Court passed an interim order directing the respondents to permit the petitioners to appear for interview and written test subject to the conditions that the petitioners shall satisfy the eligibility criteria contained in the employment notification and the selection of the petitioners, if any made, shall be subject to further orders of the Court.

 Learned counsel on either side submitted that in pursuance of the said interim order passed by this Court, the petitioners have been interviewed.

 In view of the above submission, I deem it appropriate to direct the respondents to declare the results of the interviews held and pass necessary orders, as per law.

 With the above direction, the writ petition is disposed of. There
